JOHN H. MOON, President, John H. Moon and Sons, Inc., Highway 51 North, Ridgeland, Mississippi, was contacted at his place of employment and advised of the identities of the interviewing Agents and the nature of the inquiry. MOON was furnished an Interrogation; Advice of Rights form which he read, stated he understood and he voluntarily signed. He provided the following voluntary information:

MOON advised that he had located the original copy of Check Number 31688, drawn on the business account of JOHN H. MOON and Sons, Inc., at Mississippi Bank and Trust Company, Jackson, Mississippi, Account Number 95-1232-8. He stated this check is in the amount of $1,000, that it is payable to the order of "Jim Eastland Campaign Fund" and that it is signed J. H. MOON. MOON advised that he recognized the signature at the bottom of this check as being his own.

MOON advised that he vaguely remembers having signed this check, but he stated he could not recall whether or not he knew the check was going to be used for a financial contribution to Senator JAMES O. EASTLAND's 1972 campaign fund. MOON further stated that he did not specifically remember making such a financial contribution to Senator EASTLAND because of the time period between the present and the time the check was issued. MOON advised that this check did not have a date on the front of it to indicate the date it was issued.

MOON advised that he did not know that it was against Federal law for a corporation to make a financial contribution to a U. S. Senator and he stated if he had known, he would have made the contribution on his personal checking account.

MOON provided a Xerox copy of the above-described check.

STATEMENT OF [redacted]

I, [redacted] whose address is P. O. Box 5630^{b6}
^{b7c}

[redacted] do hereby make the following statement:

I am the [redacted] businesses, which includes Cylde Herrington Real Estate, d/b/a Herrington Realty and Herrington Homes, Inc., said corporation being [redacted] [redacted]

[redacted] financial interest whatsoever in Herrington Homes, Inc.

We maintain two bank accounts at the Rankin County Bank, one bank account styled Clyde Herrington Real Estate, and Herrington Homes, Inc. For many years it has been our practise that whenever we run out of money in the Clyde Herrington Real Estate Account, I quite often use funds out of Herrington Homes, Inc. account until such time as the funds can be replenished, since [redacted] corporation.

I gave a $500.00 personal donation to the James O. Eastland campaign fund, and by mistake, my bookkeeper wrote the $500.00 campaign contribution out of the Herrington Homes, Inc.
account, however; it was my full intent for this to be a personal donation, as can be verified by personal entries by my bookkeeper and my accounting firm, Denny, Denny, DeMiller and Word. The bookkeeper charged this donation out of Herrington Homes, Inc. immediately to me personally, as can be shown and verified by my books, and can also be verified by my 1972 individual Federal income tax, which shows that the donation was charged to Clyde Herrington, individually. My bookkeeper made the entry in the books charging this to me personally as soon as the check was made. This definitely was a personal deduction as shown by the books of Herrington Homes, Inc. and Clyde Herrington Real Estate bookkeeping systems, and can be verified by my auditors and my accounting firm, Denny, Denny, DeMiller, and Word, who are certified public accountants. This donation to Senator James O. Eastland was a personal donation, and was strictly intended as such.

I hereby certify that I have made this statement of my own free will and accord, and that the statement herein given is true and correct as therein stated.

CERTIFIED on this the 9th day of ^{October}~~September~~, 1974.

[redacted] Coast TV Cable, Incorporated, 104 Jefferson Davis Avenue, Long Beach, Mississippi, was contacted at his place of business, advised of the identity of the interviewing FBI Special Agent and the nature of the inquiry, which concerned a check in the amount of $150.00, payable to James O. He thereafter furnished the following information:

[redacted] Coast TV Cable, Incorporated, [redacted] a Long Beach, Mississippi attorney, who [redacted] declined to identify. [redacted] advised he was [redacted] employed in the construction business ([redacted] Construction Company); and when he had that business, he had "no corporate rules" and he "lived out of the bank account" of the construction company. In 1967, [redacted] the construction business [redacted]

He advised since [redacted] firm, he can see nothing wrong with writing checks on the firm's account although he does maintain a personal bank account. Concerning the above-mentioned check for $150.00, [redacted] stated when he wrote it, he had no idea whatsoever he might be in violation of any law. He stated the minority [redacted] of his firm had knowledge of and concurred with his writing the check on the firm's account. [redacted] stated he had no intention whatsoever of violating any law when he wrote the check.

[redacted] stated he meant the $150.00 to be a personal contribution even though it was written on his firm's account. He pointed out that even though, at the time, he did not consider it a mistake to write the check on the firm's account, he agreed this check could be considered as "corporate assets alienated,"

[redacted] Ergon, Incorporated, Jackson, Mississippi, was interviewed at 202 East Pearl Street. [redacted] was advised of the identities of the interviewing Agents, the nature of the interview, and of his rights as contained on an unexecuted "Interrogation; Advice of Rights Form". [redacted] telephonically contacted his attorney, name not furnished, and thereafter stated that he was willing to be interviewed; however, he declined to execute the form. [redacted] thereafter furnished the following information:

[redacted] stated that in 1972, when he contributed $2,000 to the James O. Eastland Campaign, he instructed his staff to prepare a check for that amount. In prior years, campaign contributions had been written on his corporate account, and therefore in 1972 his staff prepared the check in the same manner. There was no mistake on the part of his staff. The mistake was [redacted] in that, he was ignorant of the change in the law and did not keep himself abreast of the revisions in the law. [redacted] instructions to his staff did not specifically cite which account the check was to be written on; however, due to past practice, his staff reasonably assumed that he was instructing that the corporate account be used rather than his own personal account.

[redacted] stated that he first became aware of the fact that a technical violation in the campaign laws had occurred when he was interviewed by representatives of the FBI on August 8, 1974. [redacted] then made inquiry of his Certified Public Accounting firm, Heggerman, Roper, Heddux, and Reed, and determined that they had prepared the Ergon, Incorporated, income tax returns for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1972, showing the $2,000 contribution as an expense of the corporation not legally deductible as a corporate expense. This was shown on Schedule M of the Ergon, Incorporated Income Tax Return.

[redacted] stated that he has not corrected the mistake through amended income tax returns or through ledger entries on the corporate books. He has not done this because he felt it could be interpreted as a "cover up". He stated that he would make correcting entries if that was what he was "suppose to do" and requested advice of interviewing Agents. [] was advised that the interviewing Agents could not advise him concerning this matter. [] then stated that he would comply with whatever instructions the U. S. Department of Justice might give him concerning correction of the corporate records or income tax returns.

[redacted] Bright Homes, Incorporated, 1600 U. S. Highway 90, was contacted at his place of employment, at which time he was advised of the identities of the interviewing Agents and that the nature of the investigation concerned a possible violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 610, as it pertains to contributions by corporations to the Campaign Committee of United States Senator JAMES O. EASTLAND. Prior to any questioning, [redacted] was advised of his rights by SA [redacted] which he stated he understood and wished to waive as indicated by the executed Interrogation; Advice of Rights Form. He thereafter furnished the following oral information:

Concerning Check Number 8869 issued by Bright Homes, Incorporated, on May 12, 1972, to the JAMES EASTLAND Campaign Fund in the amount of $200, [redacted] advised that this check was issued by him out of his corporation account. [redacted] advised that while he personally considered the contribution as a personal donation, he realizes that technically and legally this check was issued by his corporation, of which he is President. No effort was made by him or any member of his corporation to separate this contribution from the corporate funds in any way. [redacted] concluded by stating that he would not have issued this check in this manner if he had been fully aware of the law at that time.

[] stated that due to previous commitments it would be very inconvenient for him to meet with the interviewing Agent within the next several days. He stated he had no objection to discussing this matter on the telephone at the present time. [] was reminded that he had previously been shown an "Interrogation; Advice of Rights" form which he had read and stated he understood. He was then orally read a copy of this same form and stated again that he did understand his rights and he desired to discuss this matter at this particular time.

[] advised that there is no question but that check number 15845, written on the account of Bailey Homes, Inc., at the Gulf National Bank, in the amount of $500, payable to JAMES O. EASTLAND, and signed by himself was written on a corporate account. [] stated that this is entirely his error which he stated was an honest mistake since he is aware that corporate campaign contributions are illegal. He stated he would take full responsibility for this error. He stated that he felt this matter was over and done with and he does not believe that this matter was ever rectified by transferring funds from his personal account to the corporate account in order to cover the amount of this check. However, he stated he is certain that no income tax deduction was made for the amount of this check. He stated that he will make efforts to have this error rectified on this date but that his present bookkeeper may not be well versed enough in

EASTLAND were issued by mistake and at two other locations to determine if the contributions to the Eastland Campaign Fund were considered "corporate assets alienated." [redacted]
Ergon, Inc., Jackson, Miss., advised corporate check for $2,000 paid to campaign fund was his own mistake and on 1/31/75 advised that he transferred the $2,000 from his personal account into the Ergon, Inc., account to correct this mistake. [redacted] Bailey Homes, Inc., Biloxi, Miss., advised that $500 contribution to campaign fund of Senator EASTLAND was his own error. He advised he did have the error rectified on 1/27/75 and his [redacted] confirmed that she had been advised by [redacted] to correct the error and change this $500 to a personal contribution. [redacted]
President, Star Chevrolet Company, Inc., Wiggins, Miss., advised that he told his [redacted] to make out the check to the Eastland Campaign Fund and she made it from the Star Chevrolet Company, Inc., account rather than from his personal account. He said this was a mistake and his auditor did not notice the mistake. It has not been rectified as of 2/4/75; however, [redacted] indicated he will see that his auditor does rectify this matter. [redacted]
Bright Homes, Inc., Gautier, Miss., advised that the $200 contribution to the Eastland Campaign Fund was made out of a corporate account but he considered it a personal donation and no effort has been made to separate the contribution from the corporate funds in any way. [redacted]

b6

Coast TV Cable Company, Inc., Long Beach, Miss., advised on 1/28/75 [redacted] company and contributed $150 from his corporation to the Eastland Campaign Fund. He explained that he had "no corporate rules" and "lived out of the bank account" (corporate account). He claims he had no knowledge that this contribution was a violation of the law and the [redacted] had knowledge of the contribution and concurred in the $150 contribution. This donation could be considered "corporate assets alienated" even though [redacted] does not use this terminology.

Re Jackson memo of SA HAROLD M. RATCHFORD dated 6/16/75

Inquiry was made at Epperson Chevrolet, Amory, Miss. on 6/19/75 and it was determined that [REDACTED] was in Europe on vacation and the exact date of his arrival was not known, however it was felt that he would return within the next two weeks.

A message was left for him to contact the FBI in Columbus upon his return.

It should be noted he is well acquainted with both RA's in Columbus.

In view of the fact SA [REDACTED] will be on AL during the first part of July it is recommended this lead be reassigned to SA LYNN P. SMITH.

Dear Mr. Sullivan:

Our records reveal that on 10-31-72 a political contribution was made to the campaign fund of Senator James O. Eastland in the amount of $200. A $200 check was drawn on the account of Cook Coggin Engineers, Inc., 703 Crossover Road, Tupelo, Mississippi and signed by Leland B. Cook.

Since the firm has learned that such a contribution is a possible violation of Title 18, Section 610, United States Code, the $200 contribution has been repaid to the corporate account and I have charged the $200 contribution to my personal account.
